Harelaw Farm

Looking for a wedding venue with a true sense of wow?

Harelaw Farm offers a unique blend of history, charm and countryside beauty. Set within the rolling Ayrshire landscape, this eighteenth century farm has been carefully restored to create a setting that is both full of character and perfectly suited to modern celebrations.

Imagine centuries old stone buildings, soft golden light as the sun sets, and sweeping views that provide a picture perfect backdrop for your photographs.

Whether you are dreaming of a relaxed celebration with a contemporary bohemian feel or a timeless and elegant occasion, Harelaw has the space and style to bring your vision to life. Every detail has been designed with weddings in mind, from the characterful byre to the open spaces that invite you and your guests to celebrate in comfort and style.

Romantic, welcoming and exclusively yours for the day, Harelaw is a place where memories are made to last a lifetime.

The Wedding Byre

The Wedding Byre at Harelaw Farm is a space unlike any other.

Once a traditional milking byre, it has been beautifully restored to create a unique setting that combines character, history and effortless style. The stone walls and exposed beams offer a sense of heritage, while the open, airy layout provides a welcoming canvas for you to shape your perfect celebration.

Whether filled with flowers for a romantic ceremony or styled with personal touches that reflect your own unique story, the Byre is a place that feels both intimate and memorable. It is simple yet elegant, with an atmosphere that embraces every moment of joy.

The Byre is ready to host all the love, laughter and happy tears as you mark the moment and begin your forever...

The Stables

Where the celebrations begin...

After the ceremony, this inviting space becomes the perfect backdrop for guests to gather, raise a glass and share in the joyful moments of your day.

The atmosphere is relaxed and sociable, with canapés and bubbles flowing as friends and family mingle and the excitement of the occasion takes hold. Every moment here feels alive with warmth and anticipation, making it the perfect beginning to the celebration of your marriage.

The ideal place to catch up with loved ones, share laughter and savour the anticipation before moving on to the next chapter of your wedding celebration.

The Stables sets the tone for a day filled with love, joy and unforgettable memories.

The Haybarn

The Haybarn is the heart of every wedding at Harelaw Farm, a beautifully restored space filled with character and atmosphere. With soaring wooden beams, glowing lights and plenty of room for dining and dancing, it is the perfect setting for a celebration that flows effortlessly from day to night.

Complete with the adjacent Sow's Ear Bar, a spacious dancefloor and a raised stage for live music, the Haybarn brings together everything you need for an unforgettable party. From the first toast to the final dance, it is where memories are made to last a lifetime.

The Farmhouse

Your very own country retreat.

As a optional addition to your wedding, the Farmhouse is a place to relax, recharge and enjoy the excitement of your wedding in comfort. Sleeping up to sixteen guests, it is the perfect spot to gather your closest family and friends, whether for a relaxed evening before the big day or a well-earned rest after the celebrations.

With cosy interiors, charming details and plenty of space, the Farmhouse feels like a true home from home. Enjoy a hearty breakfast together, share stories from the night before and take in the calm of the surrounding countryside before stepping into married life.

With warmth, character and everything you need close at hand, the Farmhouse makes your wedding stay every bit as memorable as the celebration itself.
